Please note that all sales are subject to stock. Some items on our lists are one-of-a-kind and once they are sold, we cannot replace them. If you are prepaying, alternates are always a good idea. Otherwise, we endeavour to maintain good supplies, but it is not uncommon for us to be out of stock on some item at some time during the month. In all events we will always let you know what we are able to fulfill by sending you what we have in stock immediately. Also, we will give you an approximate delivery time for those items we can replace. For these reasons, we always suggest that you use your credit card to pay for your purchase. Then, we will only charge you for what we can provide at the time we ship it.
